Description:

Summary:

This two story frame house was built in 1911. The three bay structure faces east. A two story addition followed by a one story section covers the back of the house.

This two story frame house was built in 1911, according to tax assessment records. The three bay structure faces east. A two story addition followed by a one story section covers the back of the house.

The entrance is centered in the main façade. A modern porch with heavy square posts and a concrete floor covers this side. A brick chimney rises at the south end. The roof is covered with metal roofing. Aluminum siding sheathes the house. Modern aluminum windows have replaced the originals.

This house is in good condition but it has been greatly altered by modern materials.
